

Recreational

The Ice Box

Transformation

Who would have thought that the old horse barn at Nebraska State Fair Park had the potential to become one of the “coolest” buildings in Lincoln? The home ice of the Lincoln Stars, affiliated with the United States Hockey League, seats 4,231 hockey fans. This project received the “Excellence in Construction Award for Historic Renovation” by Associated Builders and Contractors in 1996.

Project Details

- Location:
Lincoln, Nebraska
- Size:
40,817 sq. ft.
- Type of Construction:
Building Renovation
- Project Completion:
1996
- “We have established a partnership with Ayars & Ayars that will continue to future projects” - Jim Pflug, VP, Lincoln Stars Hockey

