

Religious

Centenary United Methodist Church

Channeling Energies

Energy conservation and an enhanced worship experience were the main motivation behind the renovation of this historic church. A geothermal HVAC system and other electrical and mechanical upgrades combined with new energy efficient windows will enable the congregation to reduce operating expenses. Lighting upgrades and an enhanced audio-visual system allow the church to better meet the increased expectations of today's more media-conscious society.

Project Details

- Beatrice, Nebraska
- 10,916 sf
- Indoor Air Quality Project
- Project Completion: 2007
- Open Minds, Open Hearts, Open Doors; The People of the United Methodist Church.

