

Religious

York College Chapel

Historical Renovation

Built in 1880 by some of the earliest German immigrants to the region, this chapel was moved to the York College Campus in 1999. Ayars & Ayars, Inc. was chosen to update the interior to better meet the demands placed on a modern worship facility while still reflecting building's heritage. The altar is original to the church.

Project Details

➤ Location:
York, Nebraska

➤ Size:
4,310 sq. ft.

➤ Type of Construction:
Interior Renovation

➤ Project Completion:
2005

➤ The mission of York College is to equip students to lead lives of purpose, leadership, and service.

