

Retail

Coddington Finish Line Carwash

Photo Finish

Helping Lincoln keep it's cars clean is the goal of this car wash. As part of a large retail development, the free-standing carwash is designed to reflect the surrounding architecture and features two "touchless" wash bays and a central mechanical room. Masonry construction helps ensure a durable, long lasting facility while providing an attractive, "customer friendly" environment.

Project Details

➤ Location:
Lincoln, Nebraska

➤ Size:
2,352 sq. ft.

➤ Type of Construction:
Masonry Construction

➤ Project Completion:
2002

➤ A car wash is more than a note on your to-do list - at Finish Line Carwash it's an experience.

