

Warehouse

M & W Packaging

Space Conservation

This 6-story Pampers facility is another example of Ayars & Ayars, Inc. and Frazier Industrial partnering on a warehouse project. Frazier Industrial's rack storage system doubles as the building's structural component. Our scopes of work included insulated metal wall panels and trims. This system saves owners money because there is no need for additional structural members and maximum usage of the available floor space.

Project Details

➤ Location:
Cape Girardeau, Missouri

➤ Size:
54,600 sq. ft.
55 ft. tall

➤ Type of Construction:
Rack Building Structural
Support System

➤ Project Completion:
1996

➤ M & W Packaging specializes in developing unique packaging solutions for consumer products such as diapers.

