

Educational

Goodland High School

In with the Good Air

Studies show a direct correlation between air quality and the learning experience. In our role as construction manager, Ayars & Ayars, Inc. was pleased to enhance the environment of Goodland High School with this indoor air quality project. Our scopes of work included: window replacement, new electrical service and renovations necessitated by the construction process. An important side benefit of these upgrades - lower operational costs through increased thermal efficiency.

Project Details

➤ Location:
Goodland, Kansas

➤ Size:
11,700 sq. ft.

➤ Type of Construction:
Indoor Air Quality Renovations

➤ Project Completion:
2013

➤ Home of the Cowboys.

