

Government

Department of Homeland Security

Protect and Conserve

This former restaurant is now home to the Federal Office of Homeland Security. Baggage inspectors and other security personnel for the Lincoln airport are trained and managed here. The exterior color choices allow the building's exterior to blend unobtrusively into the background. The interior floor plan includes offices, training room, conference room and storage.

Project Details

Location:
Lincoln, Nebraska

Size:
5,800 sq. ft.

Type of Construction:
Building Renovation

Project Completion:
2004

Department of Homeland Security's mission is to lead the unified national effort to secure and preserve our freedoms.

