Woods & Aitken Law Firm

Custom Office

Clients of this law firm are greeted by a curved ceiling and natural light. Etched glass panels allow for confidentiality in the conference rooms while allowing natural light to filter into the lobby. The floor plan utilizes a circular office with attorney offices around the perimeter and support staff in the center. Further evidence of maximizing space can be seen in the hallways lined with cabinets for the law library. Each office is customized according to the occupants specific needs while incorporating the overall design theme.
