

Kawasaki Interior Enclosure

New Tricks of the Trade

Kawasaki called upon Ayars & Ayars, Inc. to help design and build their new interior enclosure within their Lincoln facility with enough space to test for general quality control of their products. The enclosure includes three areas specifically for research and development of Kawasaki products, a road simulator, force plate and a rig-bit force machine.

Project Details

- Location:
Lincoln, Nebraska
- Size:
5,000 sq. ft.
- Type of Construction:
Metal
- Project Completion:
2016
- Distributor of power sports vehicles including motorcycles, ATVs, Side x Sides and personal watercraft.

